

To Mr. and Mr. Healy

I am Jordan Maher I am a friend of Luke's. Last July we went to New Zealand together with Hayden Osborn, and since they were busy when I was booking the trip, I paid for the whole trip. A few days when we got back, I notice that Luke still had to pay the last third of the trip ($932). I tried messaged him saying just pay when you can because I was under the impression that something might not have gone through properly or that he might not have had the money yet. But Luke took it as I wanted the money right now and then followed with him ignoring me for the next month and a half.

Then I finally got a hold of him on this computer app then message him are you ignoring me or are you not getting my messages that's where he got furious and a few words were said on both sides with him saying I have the money but don't want to pay you.

To be fair, I took about a year and year and a bit to pay him back due to lack of work due to being injured and only getting 3 hours a week. And since I didn't do internet banking at that stage, I would give him the money when I visited when he lived in Brisbane. Then I left it at that. The following day I tried to get back on the app to make amends, but he deleted me from his friend's list.

I talked to my parents and to be fair, we decided to give him a year to pay cause I took about the same so by the 12th of August of this year. And that if he didn't, we were planning to take it to small claims court which I don't want to do or come to I'm hoping we could have this whole thing sorted and we go back to being mates.

We haven't spoken since until this week where I have tried to message him on Facebook to make amends and to try to get our friendship back on track but he his still choosing to ignore me I believe he is under the impression that I'm asking for the money. But what has made me it feel worse is that he still hasn't even opened the message even to read it.

I'm sorry that it had come to think of this, but I didn't know what else to do

Regards Jordan

Feel free to reply by sending me an email or mobile

Jordan-012@live.com
0417350790